Printer and the state of the st

Approved For Release 2006/11/04 : CIA-RDP79M00983A001800010002-7
INTERNAL USE ONLY

34. Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to confirm with him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Chairman Daniel K. Incoye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in His Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Irrector of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel	Page 9
Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to confirm with him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hersnman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Thursday - 17 November 1977	SSCIJ-34
Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to confirm with him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.
Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to confirm with him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.		GUIDELINES (MU)
him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Chairman Daniel K. Incouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	34.	LAISON Called Victor Kramer, 25X1
him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Chairman Daniel K. Incouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hersnman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee	tee on Ethics, to confirm with Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hersnman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	him that Chairman Adlai E. Stevenson (D., Ill.) had checked with Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had checked with Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Chairman Daniel K. Inouye (D., Hawaii), Senate Select Committee on
Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, for agreement on the use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formulation in the Memorandum of Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Intelligence, and that he (Kramer) had o	checked with Bill Miller, Staff
Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Director, Senate Select Committee on I	ntelligence, for agreement on the Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Statt Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	use of the S. Res. 400, Section 8 formu	lation in the Memorandum of matters had been covered but he would recheck. He agreed to call me no later than the following day. 35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Understanding we have worked out with the Senate Select Committee on
35. LIAISON Received a call from 25X1 Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Ethics. Mr. Kramer said it was his best recollection that both of these
Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	matters had been covered but he would	recheck. He agreed to call me
Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	no later than the following day.	हमान क्षेत्रके के बोध के भाग प्राप्त के कार कर है है है है
Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Staff Director, Subcommittee on International Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.
Organizations, House International Relations Committee, who wanted to inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.		mynogra receited a carritrour inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Michael J. Hershman, Deputy Stati Dir	ector, Subcommittee on International cleared for use in public hearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Organizations, House international Relations Committee, who wanted to expects to begin public hearings on 29 November, and I agreed to attempt to accelerate work on the requirements he had given us. 36. LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	inquire into progress made in the additional material he had asked to have
LIAISON I called Victor Kramer, Special 25X1 Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	oversets to begin rubble bearings. Mr. Hershman said that the Subcommittee
Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	to accelerate work on the requirements by had six and agreed to attempt
Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.		ne nau given us.
Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIA's Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	36. T.IATSO	N I called Victor Kramer Special 25X1
Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Counsel Senate Select Committee on Ethics, to inform him that CIALS which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	Director of Security had waived the requirement for the missing document effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	which had held up his clearance, and that his security clearance was again that the delay in his clearance had not been our responsibility. Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.	effective from this date. I took this occasion to remind Mr. Kramer once
Mr. Kramer said he understood and thanked me for my efforts in his behalf.
 	Mr. Kramer said he understood and tha	nked me for my efforts in his behalf.
25 X ФX1
		25 X $X
		·

DOMNING.

MITERMAL UGE ONLY

MORI/CDF